

Alcohol and the Law

The police can take away alcohol from under 18s in a public place

If someone is over 18, they will need to prove it!

It's against the law to sell alcohol to someone who is drunk or to buy alcohol for someone who is drunk

No one can buy or be served alcohol if they are under 18 in a licensed premises

Driving when above the drink-drive limit risks lives. Those who are caught may face fines and losing their licence and prison.

It's against the law for anyone aged 18 or over to buy alcohol for under 18s (buying by proxy)
